

To Parents/Carers

16th March 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

Actor visit – Tuesday 18th April 3.15pm in the Library

We are delighted that Effie Ansah, who was a student at Saint Cecilia's, and is now starring in the Pilot Theatre production of Noughts and Crosses, is visiting school to speak to our pupils and students about her journey from school to stage.

Effie will be sharing her thoughts and experiences, and answer questions at a special event hosted by the Library on Tuesday 18th April at 3.15pm.

Please encourage your child to come along to this informal Q&A. Whether they are interested in pursuing a career in acting, were lucky enough to see Effie perform in Kingston as part of our theatre trip last term, or have enjoyed the Noughts and Crosses series of books by Malorie Blackman, there will be something for everyone to learn from Effie. Those studying Drama at GCSE or A level are especially invited.

Noughts and Crosses production photos © Robert Day

Places for this (free) event are limited so please book via ParentPay to guarantee a seat.

Yours sincerely,

Rachel Goodhart
School Librarian